INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT ON JUTE AND JUTE PRODUCTS, 1982
CONCLUDED AT GENEVA ON 1 OCTOBER 1982

PROPOSED ADOPTION OF THE AUTHENTIC CHINESE TEXT OF THE AGREEMENT

The Secretary-General of the United Nations recalls that by depositary notification C.N.185.1983.TREATIES-8 of 8 July 1983, he communicated, at the request of the Preparatory Committee for the International Jute Council, a Chinese text of the said Agreement for its possible adoption as an authentic text; but that one of the parties having objected to the adoption of the said Chinese text (the text of the objection having been circulated by depositary notification C.N.328.1983.TREATIES-11 of 11 November 1983), the said proposition was considered not to have been accepted.

In his capacity as depositary, and referring to the above, the Secretary-General further communicates the following:

At its Fourth Session held from 13 to 15 November 1985, the International Jute Council decided unanimously to request the Secretary-General to propose, for adoption under the procedure decided in the above-mentioned depositary notification C.N.185.1983.TREATIES-8, the text of a new revised Chinese text of the said Agreement, which text, if so adopted, would have the same status as the other authentic texts referred to in the testimonium clause of the Agreement.

In accordance with the above-mentioned request, a copy of the ..... Chinese text established by the Secretariat is attached hereto. Unless any objections by States or organizations that have signed, ratified, accepted or approved the Agreement or acceded thereto, are notified within 90 days from the date of the present communication, the Secretary-General, in accordance with established depositary practice, shall consider that the said Chinese text has been adopted as an authentic text and shall therefore cause it to be inserted in the original.
