their respective territories the terminal points of a sea link on the class-A international road or roads specified above shall also be considered contiguous for the purposes of this paragraph.

4. Any proposed amendments communicated in accordance with paragraph 3 of this article shall be accepted if within a period of six months following the date of its communication none of the competent administrations of the Contracting Parties directly concerned notify the Secretary-General of their objection to the amendment. If the administration of a Contracting Party states that its national law obliges it to subordinate its agreement to the grant of a specific authorization or to the approval of a legislative body, the competent administration shall not be considered as having consented to the amendment to annex I to this Agreement, and the proposed amendment shall not be accepted, until such time as the said competent administration notifies the Secretary-General that it has obtained the required authorization or approval. If such notification is not made within a period of eighteen months following the date on which the proposed amendment was communicated to the said competent administration or if, within the period of six months specified above, the competent administration of a Contracting Party directly concerned expresses an objection to the proposed amendment, that amendment shall not be accepted.

The report of the session, ECE/TRANS/SC.1/406, which contains the text of the proposal of amendment, can be accessed on the website for the Transport Division of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe at the following address: <http://www.unece.org/trans/main/sc1/sc1rep.html>.

Finally, reference is made to paragraph 12 of document TRANS/SC1/324 concerning the procedure under paragraph 3 of article 8 of the AGR. Paragraph 12 of this document reads as follows:

“12. Regarding such procedure, the Working Party agreed that in order to make it more simple the draft amendments adopted should be communicated to all Contracting Parties and not only to the ‘Contracting Parties directly concerned’ as envisaged under the Agreement, it being understood that for their acceptance the provisions of article 8, paragraph 4 would apply fully.”

In accordance with the above-quoted paragraphs 4 and 5 of article 8, the proposed amendment shall be considered as having been accepted if, within a period of six months following the date of the present notification, no objection has been received from a competent administration of a Contracting Party directly concerned and, if accepted, shall enter into force for all Contracting Parties three months after the date of the communication by the Secretary-General that the amendment has been accepted.
