7-1-S/71

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- Under Supreme Decree No. 064-2020-PCM, issued on 10 April 2020, the state of national emergency declared through Supreme Decree No. 044-2020-PCM and extended temporarily through Supreme Decree No. 051-2020-PCM and specified through Supreme Decree No. 045-2020-PCM, Supreme Decree No. 046-2020-PCM, No. 051-2020-PCM, No. 053-2020-PCM, No. 057-2020-PCM, No. 058-2020-PCM, No. 061-2020-PCM and No. 063-2020-PCM, was extended for a period of 14 calendar days, from 13 April 2020 to 26 April 2020.
- During the extension of the state of national emergency, the rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 17, 21 and 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.
- It should be noted that one person per nuclear family may go out to acquire food and pharmaceutical products and conduct financial transactions and that masks must be worn when using public thoroughfares. Furthermore, during the extension of the state of national emergency, all persons are under a mandatory, nationwide stay-at-home measure from 6 p.m. until 4 a.m. the following day, with the exception of the Tumbes, Piura, Lambayeque, La Libertad and Loreto Departments, where the mandatory stay-at-home measure is in effect from 4 p.m. until 4 a.m. the following day. Further, on Sundays, the stay-at-home measure is mandatory for all citizens nationwide for the entire day.

- The state of emergency was extended to enable the continued application of the exceptional measures to protect the life and health of the population efficiently, by reducing the possibility of an increase in the number of persons affected by COVID-19.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
