The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- On 23 May 2020, Supreme Decree No. 094-2020-PCM was issued, extending from Monday 25 May 2020 until Tuesday 30 June 2020, the state of national emergency declared through Supreme Decree No. 044-2020-PCM, temporarily extended through Supreme Decrees No. 051-2020-PCM, No. 064-2020-PCM, No. 075-2020-PCM and No. 083-2020-PCM; and specified or amended through Supreme Decrees No. 045-2020-PCM, No. 046-2020-PCM, No. 051-2020-PCM, No. 053-2020-PCM, No. 057-2020-PCM, No. 058-2020-PCM, No. 061-2020-PCM, No. 063-2020-PCM, No. 064-2020-PCM, No. 068-2020-PCM, No. 072-2020-PCM and No. 083-2020-PCM, and providing for a mandatory social isolation (quarantine), due to the serious circumstances affecting the life of the nation as a result of COVID-19.
- During the extension of the state of national emergency, the rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 17, 21 and 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, remain suspended.
- During the state of national emergency and the quarantine, individuals may move around through public routes only to provide and avail themselves of the services, essential goods and activities related to the resumption of economic activities, in accordance with Supreme Decree No. 094-2020-PCM.

- All persons are under a mandatory, stay-at-home measure from 9 p.m. until 4 a.m., with the exception of the Tumbes, Piura, Lambayeque, La Libertad, Loreto, Ucayali and Ica Departments and the provinces of Santa, Huarmey and Casma in the Ancash Department, where the mandatory stay-at-home measure is in effect from 6 p.m. until 4 a.m. the following day. Further, on Sundays, the stay-at-home measure is mandatory for all citizens nationwide for the entire day.
- The state of emergency was extended to enable the continued application of the exceptional measures to protect the life and health of the population efficiently, by reducing the possibility of an increase in the number of persons affected by COVID-19.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
