7-1-S/103

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- On 26 June 2020, Supreme Decree No. 116-2020-PCM was issued, extending, from Wednesday 1 July 2020 until Friday 31 July 2020, the state of national emergency declared through Supreme Decree No. 044-2020-PCM, temporarily extended through Supreme Decrees No. 051-2020-PCM, No. 064-2020-PCM, No. 075-2020-PCM, No. 083-2020-PCM and No. 094-2020-PCM; and specified or amended through Supreme Decrees No. 045-2020-PCM, No. 046-2020-PCM, No. 051-2020-PCM, No. 053-2020-PCM, No. 057-2020-PCM, No. 058-2020-PCM, No. 061-2020-PCM, No. 063-2020-PCM, No. 064-2020-PCM, No. 068-2020-PCM, No. 072-2020-PCM, No. 083-2020-PCM and No. 094-2020-PCM, due to the serious circumstances affecting the life of the nation as a result of COVID-19.
- During the extension of the state of national emergency, the rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 17, 21 and 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, remain suspended.
- The state of emergency was extended to enable the continued application of the exceptional measures to protect the life and health of the population efficiently, by reducing the possibility of an increase in the number of persons affected by COVID-19.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
