Note No. 4-2-89/2022

The Permanent Mission of Ecuador to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and refers to Note No. 4-2-85/2022 of 21 June 2022, in which it provided information concerning the issuance of Executive Decree No. 459 of 20 June 2022 declaring a state of emergency owing to serious internal unrest in the provinces of Chimborazo, Tungurahua, Cotopaxi, Pichincha, Pastaza and Imbabura.

The Permanent Mission of Ecuador to the United Nations wishes to draw attention to Executive Decree No. 461 of 25 June 2022 in which the President of the Republic, Guillermo Lasso Mendoza, declares “the termination of the state of emergency owing to serious internal unrest in the provinces of Chimborazo, Tungurahua, Cotopaxi, Pichincha, Pastaza and Imbabura”.

Article 2 of that Executive Decree provides that “the suspension of the exercise of the rights to freedom of movement and freedom of association and assembly is lifted”.

By virtue of the sole repealing provision, Executive Decree No. 459 of 20 June 2022 is thus repealed.

In accordance with article 4, paragraph 3, of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the Permanent Mission of Ecuador to the United Nations respectfully requests the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, to inform all the States parties to the Covenant accordingly.

¹ The text of Executive Decree No. 461 of 25 June 2022 of the Republic of Ecuador attached to the notification is on file with the Secretary-General and is available for consultation.

The Permanent Mission of Ecuador to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
