7-1-S/2023/70

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- The Government of Peru, through Supreme Decree No. 025-2023-PCM, dated 18 February 2023, has extended the state of emergency declared through Supreme Decree No. 010-2023-PCM in the province of Condorcanqui and in the districts of Imaza and Aramango in the province of Bagua (Department of Amazonas), for a period of 60 calendar days from 19 February 2023; and in the Department of La Libertad for a period of 30 calendar days beginning on 19 February 2023.
- The extension is in response to the continuation of various social conflicts in the aforementioned areas that have led to acts of violence against public and private institutions, attacks on the personal safety of citizens and officials, and roadblocks. During the state of emergency, the constitutional rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 17, 21 and 12 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
