7-1-S/2024/149

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- Through Supreme Decree No. 076-2024-PCM, published on 26 July 2024, the Government of Peru extended the state of emergency declared by Supreme Decree No. 046-2023-PCM in the districts of Tambopata, Inambari, Las Piedras and Laberinto in the province of Tambopata, and in the districts of Madre de Dios and Huepetuhe in the province of Manu in the department of Madre de Dios, for a period of 60 calendar days starting on 30 July 2024.
- The measure was extended to continue to implement police operations to combat and neutralize illegal logging and mining and related offences (illicit drug trafficking, human trafficking, trafficking of migrants, smuggling, among others, perpetrated by small-scale and organized crime), which disrupt internal order in the aforementioned areas. During the state of emergency, the constitutional rights relating to liberty and security of person, inviolability of the home, and freedom of assembly and movement in the territory, included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are suspended.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
