The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- By Supreme Decree No. 129-2024-PCM, dated 26 November 2024, the Government of Peru declared a state of emergency in the Districts of Ate, Ancón, Carabayllo, Comas, Independencia, Los Olivos, Lurigancho-Chosica, Puente Piedra, Rímac, San Martín de Porres, San Juan de Lurigancho, Santa Rosa and Villa El Salvador in the Province of Lima in the Department of Lima, as well as in the District of Ventanilla in the Constitutional Province of Callao, for a period of 45 calendar days starting on 27 November 2024.
- The reason for the extension of the state of emergency is due to the continued disruption of internal order caused by the rise in offences such as homicide, extortion, illicit drug trafficking, among others, in the above-mentioned areas. In this context, the constitutional rights relating to the inviolability of the home, freedom of movement within the national territory, freedom of assembly, and liberty and security of person, as outlined in paragraphs 9), 11), 12) and 24) letter f) of Article 2 of the Political Constitution of Peru, and those included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, are restricted.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
