7-1-S/2024/214

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- Through Supreme Decree No. 126-2024-PCM, published on 22 November 2024, the Government of Peru extended the state of emergency declared in the districts of Tambopata, Inambari, Las Piedras and Laberinto in the province of Tambopata, and in the districts of Madre de Dios and Huepetuhe in the province of Manu in the department of Madre de Dios, for a period of 60 calendar days starting on 27 November 2024.
- The measure was extended to continue to implement police operations aimed at combating and neutralizing illegal logging and mining, as well as related crimes (illicit drug trafficking, smuggling, human trafficking for sexual and/or labor exploitation, among others, perpetrated by small-scale and organized crime), which disrupt internal order. During the state of emergency, the exercise of the constitutional rights relating to the inviolability of the home, freedom of movement in the national territory, freedom of assembly and liberty and security of person, as outlined in paragraphs 9), 11), 12) and 24) letter f) of Article 2 of the Political Constitution of Peru, and those included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, is restricted.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
