7-1-S/2024/212

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- By Supreme Decree No. 120-2024-PCM, published on 8 November 2024, the Government of Peru extended the state of emergency declared in the province of Trujillo of the department of La Libertad for a period of thirty (30) calendar days starting on 10 November 2024.
- The state of emergency was extended due to the persistence of criminality in the province of Trujillo, which manifests itself in various forms, with the most prevalent crimes being larceny, extortion, robbery, among others, and the upward trend in the commission of crimes against property and crimes against the person, the body, and health (homicides and injuries) committed by organizations and criminal gangs that use firearms and explosives, which undermine internal order. During the state of emergency, the exercise of the constitutional rights relating to the inviolability of the home, freedom of movement in the national territory, freedom of assembly and liberty and security of person, as outlined in paragraphs 9), 11), 12) and 24) letter f) of Article 2 of the Political Constitution of Peru, and those included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, is restricted.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
