The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- By Supreme Decree No. 146-2024-PCM,¹ published on 22 December 2024, the state of emergency in the Districts of Manitea and Kimbiri in the Province of La Convención (Department of Cusco) was extended for a period of 60 calendar days from 24 December 2024.
- The reason for the measure is the continuing high incidence of crimes involving illicit drug trafficking, in their various forms, such as arms trafficking and other related crimes, committed by criminal organizations, which affect internal order in those areas of the country, putting the public at risk. In this context, the exercise of the constitutional rights relating to the inviolability of the home, freedom of movement in the national territory, freedom of assembly, and liberty and security of person, as outlined in paragraphs 9, 11, 12 and 24 (f) of article 2 of the Political Constitution of Peru, and those included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, is restricted.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
