INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS
NEW YORK, 16 DECEMBER 1966

PERU: NOTIFICATION UNDER ARTICLE 4 (3)

The Secretary-General of the United Nations, acting in his capacity as depositary, communicates the following:

The above action was effected on 8 May 2025.

(Translation) (Original: Spanish)

7-1-S/2025/086

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- By Supreme Decree No. 055-2025-PCM,¹ published on 1 May 2025, the state of emergency declared in the province of Zarumilla of the department of Tumbes was extended for a period of 60 calendar days starting on 5 May 2025.
- The reason for the extension of the state of emergency is to continue with police operations to maintain and/or restore public order in the aforementioned area as well as the constitutional rights of the people in the face of crimes such as illicit drug trafficking, smuggling, human trafficking, money-laundering and arms trafficking. In this context, the exercise of the constitutional rights relating to the inviolability of the home, freedom of movement in the national territory, freedom of assembly, and liberty and security of person, as outlined in paragraphs 9, 11, 12 and 24 (f) of article 2 of the Political Constitution of Peru, and those included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, is restricted.

¹ The text of Supreme Decree No. 055-2025-PCM of the Republic of Peru is on file with the Secretary-General and available for consultation.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
