INTERNATIONAL COVENANT ON CIVIL AND POLITICAL RIGHTS
NEW YORK, 16 DECEMBER 1966

PERU: NOTIFICATION UNDER ARTICLE 4 (3)

The Secretary-General of the United Nations, acting in his capacity as depositary, communicates the following:

The above action was effected on 15 May 2025.

(Translation) (Original: Spanish)

7-1-S/2025/093

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

- By Supreme Decree No. 060-2025-PCM,¹ published on 8 May 2025, the state of emergency declared in the province of Pataz of the department of La Libertad was extended for a period of thirty (30) calendar days starting on 9 May 2025.
- The state of emergency was extended owing to the continuing disruption of internal order caused by illegal mining, organized crime and related crimes in the province of Pataz. In this context, the exercise of the constitutional rights relating to the inviolability of the home, freedom of movement in the national territory, freedom of assembly, and liberty and security of person, as outlined in paragraphs 9, 11, 12 and 24 (f) of article 2 of the Political Constitution of Peru, and those included in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, is restricted.

¹ The text of Supreme Decree No. 060-2025-PCM of the Republic of Peru is on file with the Secretary-General and is available for consultation.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
