7-1-S/2026/78

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

By Supreme Decree No. 044-2026-PCM,¹ published on 28 March 2026, the state of emergency declared in Metropolitan Lima (department of Lima) and in the Constitutional Province of Callao was extended for a period of thirty (30) calendar days beginning on 30 March 2026.

This extension was adopted to address crime and other situations of violence in the aforementioned jurisdictions. In this regard, the exercise of the constitutional rights relating to inviolability of the home, freedom of movement in the national territory, freedom of assembly, and liberty and security of person, set forth in paragraphs 9, 11, 12 and 24 (f) of article 2 of the Political Constitution of Peru, as well as in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, is restricted.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
