7-1-S/2026/101

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

By Supreme Decree No. 063-2026-PCM,[1] issued on 6 May 2026, the state of emergency was extended for a period of 60 calendar days, from 7 May 2026, in the districts of Anco, Ayna, Santa Rosa, Samugari, Anchihuay, Río Magdalena and Unión Progreso, Province of La Mar, in the Department of Ayacucho; in the districts of Kimbiri, Villa Kintiarina, Villa Virgen, Echarate, Megantoni, Kumpirushiato, Cielo Punco and Manitea, Province of La Convención, in the Department of Cuzco; and in the districts of Pangoa and Río Tambo, Province of Satipo, in the Department of Junín.

The state of emergency was extended to address such offences as illicit trafficking in drugs and other related offences, as well as other situations of violence.

In this context, restrictions are imposed on the exercise of the constitutional rights relating to the inviolability of the home, liberty of movement in the national territory, freedom of assembly, and liberty and security of person, enshrined in paragraphs 9, 11, 12 and 24 (f) of article 2 of the Political Constitution of Peru, and in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

Furthermore, the extension of the state of emergency excludes from its scope the population centres of Puerto Ocopa and Quiteni in the district of Río Tambo, Province of Satipo, Department of Junín; the population centre of Kiteni in the district of Echarate, Province of La Convención, Department of Cuzco; as well as the territorial areas known as the “Camisea Gas Energy Hub”, which spans a distance of 8 kilometres on each side of the natural gas and natural gas liquids transportation system, from the population centre of Nuevo Mundo in the district of Megantoni, Province of La Convención, Department of Cuzco, to the district of Anco in the Province of La Mar, Department of Ayacucho; and the "River-Land Operational Corridor of the Ene River", which covers an area extending along both banks of the Ene River. These continue to fall within the scope of Supreme Decree No. 040–2026-PCM.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
