7-1-S/2026/102

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, and, in accordance with article 4 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, bearing in mind what is stated in note verbale LA 41 TR/2017/IV-4/Peru/1, dated 1 March 2017, has the honour to report the following:

By Supreme Decree No. 064-2026-PCM,[1] issued on 6 May 2026, the state of emergency was extended for a period of 60 calendar days, from 7 May 2026, in the districts of Piura, Castilla, Veintiséis de Octubre and Catacaos, in the Province of Piura; the districts of Sullana and Bellavista, in the Province of Sullana; and the Provinces of Paita and Talara. All are in the Department of Piura.

The state of emergency was extended to address the crime and other situations of violence in the aforementioned jurisdictions. In this context, restrictions are imposed on the exercise of the constitutional rights relating to the inviolability of the home, liberty of movement in the national territory, freedom of assembly, and liberty and security of person, enshrined in paragraphs 9, 11, 12 and 24 (f) of article 2 of the Constitution of Peru, and in articles 9, 12, 17 and 21 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

Furthermore, during the period of the extension of the state of emergency, the other measures set forth in Supreme Decree No. 030-2026-PCM shall remain in force, including those established in its Final Supplementary Provisions.

[1] The text of Supreme Decree No. 064-2026-PCM of the Republic of Peru is on file with the Secretary-General and is available for consultation.

The Permanent Mission of Peru to the United Nations takes this opportunity to convey to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Secretariat, the renewed assurances of its highest consideration.
