The Fund agrees further to participate in the work of the United Nations aimed at enhancing such co-operation and co-ordination, in particular through membership in the Administrative Committee on co-ordination, and, as appropriate, in the work of such other United Nations bodies that have been established or may be established for that purpose.

2. In its financing operations, the Fund shall exercise its own independent judgement in accordance with the Agreement, taking fully into account the over-all policy guidelines established by the United Nations in the field of economic and social, and particularly agricultural, development.

Article V. Consultation and recommendations

1. The Fund, having regard to the obligations of the United Nations to promote the objectives set forth in Article 55 of the Charter and the functions and powers of the United Nations and its appropriate organs, in particular to make recommendations for the co-ordination of the policies and activities of the specialized agencies, agrees to arrange for the consideration as soon as possible, by the appropriate organ of the Fund, of all formal recommendations which the United Nations may make to it.

Article VIII. Administrative co-operation

2. Accordingly, the United Nations and the Fund shall consult together concerning the establishment and use of common administrative and technical services and facilities, in addition to those referred to in articles IV, V, IX, X and XII of the present Agreement in so far as the establishment and use of such services may from time to time be found practicable and appropriate.

analysis, publication and dissemination of statistical information. They shall combine their efforts to secure the greatest possible usefulness and utilization of statistical information and to minimize the burden placed upon Governments and on other organizations from which such information may be collected.

3. The United Nations and the Fund agree to furnish each other promptly with all appropriate non-confidential statistical information.

4. The United Nations shall, in consultation with the Fund and other agencies within the United Nations system, continue to develop administrative instruments and procedures through which effective statistical co-operation may be secured among all these organizations.

Article XI. Assistance to the United Nations

Protocol Concerning the Entry into Force of the Agreement Between the United Nations and the International Fund for Agricultural Development

Article 59 of its Charter calls on the United Nations to initiate, where appropriate, negotiations among the States concerned for the creation of any new specialized agencies required for the accomplishment of the purpose set forth in Article 55. Article 57 of the Charter provides that specialized agencies established by intergovernmental agreement and having wide international responsibilities as defined in their basic instruments in economic, social, cultural, educational, health and related fields shall be brought into relationship with the United Nations. Article 63 of the Charter provides that the Economic and Social Council may enter into agreements with any of the agencies referred to in Article 57, defining the terms on which the agency concerned shall be brought into relationship with the United Nations, and specifies that such agreements shall be subject to approval by the General Assembly.

Acting on the basis of a resolution adopted by the World Food Conference on 16 November 1974, the General Assembly of the United Nations on 17 December 1974 requested the Secretary-General to convene urgently a meeting of all interested countries to work out the details of an international fund for agricultural development as envisaged in the resolution of the Conference. At its second session, the Meeting of Interested Countries on the Establishment of an International Fund for Agricultural Development recommended that the Fund be established as a specialized agency within the United Nations system with autonomy in policy formulation and operations.

Acting on the recommendation of the Meeting of Interested Countries, the General Assembly on 15 December 1975 adopted a resolution requesting the Secretary-General to convene a conference of plenipotentiaries on the establishment of an International Fund for Agricultural Development. By the same resolution the Assembly also requested the Economic and Social Council to arrange for the negotiation with the Preparatory Commission for the Fund, to be established by the conference, of an agreement with the Fund to constitute it as a specialized agency in accordance with Articles 57 and 63 of the Charter and to enter into such agreement subject to the approval of the General Assembly.

Responding to the aforementioned resolution of the General Assembly, the Economic and Social Council on 13 May 1976 invited the Preparatory Commission for the Fund to prepare and submit to the Council's Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies proposals for bringing the Fund into relationship with the United Nations, taking into account the agreements previously concluded between the United Nations and the specialized agencies. It also requested the Committee on Negotiations to submit its report to the Council, including the text of a draft relationship agreement.

The Conference on the Establishment of an International Fund for Agricultural Development met in Rome from 10 to 13 June 1976 and adopted the Agreement Establishing the International Fund for Agricultural Development. Article 8, section 1, of the Agreement provides that the Fund is to enter into negotiations with the United Nations with a view to concluding an agreement to bring it into relationship with the United Nations as one of the specialized agencies referred to in Article 57 of the Charter, and specifies that any such agreement concluded in accordance with Article 63 of the Charter requires the approval of the Governing Council of the Fund, by a two-thirds majority of the total number of votes, upon the recommendation of the Executive Board of the Fund. The Conference also established a Preparatory Commission for the Fund, which it charged, inter alia, with entering into appropriate consultations in respect of a relationship agreement with the United Nations, as foreseen in the Agreement Establishing the Fund.

At its first session the Preparatory Commission on 30 September 1976 took note of the aforementioned invitation of the Economic and Social Council and requested the interim secretariat of the Commission to submit to it at its second session a draft of a relationship agreement with the United Nations. At its second session the Commission on 16 December 1976 authorized its Chairman to transmit to the Council's Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies a draft of the Relationship Agreement and further authorized its Chairman to supply to the Committee any clarifications that it might seek concerning that draft. At its third session the Commission on 7 April 1977 recognized the need to explain to the Committee the full rationale for the proposal incorporated in the Commission's draft of the Relationship Agreement and approved an Explanatory Note on that Agreement which it authorized its Chairman to transmit to the Secretary-General of the United Nations for submission to the Committee; it further authorized its Chairman, assisted by the two Vice-Chairmen, to present on behalf of the Commission any clarification that the Committee might seek concerning the draft Relationship Agreement and to agree to any amendments in that draft within the framework of the Explanatory Note.

The Committee for Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies of the Economic and Social Council met between 14 April and 11 May 1977, with the participation of the Chairman and the two Vice-Chairmen of the Preparatory Commission for the Fund. At the conclusion of its meetings it submitted a report to the Council containing a revised text of a draft Relationship Agreement and indicating with regard to article IX thereof (entitled "Personnel Arrangements") that the Chairman of the Commission had stated that his agreement with the text of the draft of this article was subject to endorsement by the Commission. The Council at its sixty-second session on 13 May 1977 took note with appreciation of the report of the Committee and decided to transmit to the Fund, for its approval the draft Relationship Agreement proposed by the Committee, and the summary record of the Council's discussion.
At its fourth session the Preparatory Commission for the Fund on 13 July 1977 noted the report of its officers on the negotiations concerning the draft Relationship Agreement that they had conducted with the Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies, and approved the draft of the Relationship Agreement annexed to the report of the Committee.

The Economic and Social Council at its sixty-third session, on the basis of a report of its Policy and Programme Co-ordination Committee, decided on 3 August 1977 to recommend to the General Assembly that the Assembly approve at its thirty-second session the text of the draft Relationship Agreement in the form that had been negotiated by the Committee on Negotiations with Intergovernmental Agencies and the Preparatory Commission for the Fund.

At the thirty-second session of the General Assembly, the Administrative and Budgetary Committee of the Assembly, taking note of a report of the Assembly's Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions that commented on the proposed personnel arrangements as contained in article IX of the draft Agreement, recommended to the General Assembly that it invite the Fund, once constituted, to participate in the United Nations common system for the regulation and co-ordination of the conditions of employment of staff and, in particular, to accept the statute of the International Civil Service Commission, which it noted aimed at the development of a single, unified international civil service through the application of common personnel, standards, methods and arrangements. The Assembly accepted this recommendation and addressed a resolution to this effect to the Fund on 13 December 1977.

The Executive Board of the Fund at its first session on 14 December 1977 considered the proposals of the Preparatory Commission concerning the personnel practices of the Fund in the light of the resolution that had just been addressed to the Fund by the General Assembly; thereupon the Board approved, in connexion with its recommendation that the Governing Council of the Fund approve the draft Relationship Agreement with the United Nations, the text of a communication that the President of the Fund was to make to the Secretary-General announcing the approval of that Agreement, in which message it was to be stated that the Executive Board of the Fund had approved the adoption of the United Nations common system for determining the initial salary structure of the staff of the Fund and had authorized the President of the Fund to initiate discussions with the Chairman of the International Civil Service Commission to secure a certain degree of flexibility within the common system, required for a new financing institution with a small staff. Acting on the recommendation of the Board, the Governing Council on 14 December 1977 approved the Relationship Agreement, and the President of the Fund communicated this approval to the Secretary-General of the United Nations in the message the text of which had been approved by the Executive Board.

After the receipt of the communication from the President of the Fund, the General Assembly, acting on the recommendation of its Administrative and Budgetary Committee, on 15 December 1977 approved articles VII, VIII and IX of the draft Relationship Agreement and on the same date, acting on the recommendation of its Economic and Financial Committee, approved the draft Relationship Agreement.

Article XVIII of the Agreement provides that the Agreement shall enter into force on its approval by the General Assembly of the United Nations and the Governing Council of the International Fund for Agricultural Development.

The Agreement accordingly came into force on 15 December 1977.

A copy of the authentic text of the Agreement is attached hereto.
