Having considered it proper to provide for three additional seats in the Council and, accordingly, to increase the membership from thirty to thirty-three, in order to permit an increase in the representation of States elected in the second, and particularly the third, part of the election, and

Having considered it necessary to amend, for the purpose aforesaid, the Convention on International Civil Aviation done at Chicago on the seventh day of December 1944,¹

(1) Approved, in accordance with the provisions of article 94(a) of the Convention aforesaid, the following proposed amendment to the said Convention: in article 50(a) of the Convention the second sentence shall be amended by replacing "thirty" by "thirty-three";

(2) Specified, pursuant to the provisions of the said article 94(a) of the said Convention, eighty-six as the number of Contracting States upon whose ratification the proposed amendment aforesaid shall come into force; and

(3) Resolved that the Secretary General of the International Civil Aviation Organization draw up a Protocol, in the English, French and Spanish languages, each of which shall be of equal authenticity, embodying the proposed amendment above-mentioned and the matter hereinafter appearing:

(a) The Protocol shall be signed by the President of the Assembly and its Secretary General;

(b) The Protocol shall be open to ratification by any State which has ratified or adhered to the said Convention on International Civil Aviation;

(c) The instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the International Civil Aviation Organization;

(d) The Protocol shall come into force in respect of the States which have ratified it on the date on which the eighty-sixth instrument of ratification is so deposited;

(e) The Secretary General shall immediately notify all Contracting States of the date of deposit of each ratification of the Protocol;

(f) The Secretary General shall immediately notify all States parties to the said Convention of the date on which the Protocol comes into force;

(g) With respect to any Contracting State ratifying the Protocol after the date aforesaid, the Protocol shall come into force upon deposit of its instrument of ratification with the International Civil Aviation Organization;

Consequently, pursuant to the aforesaid action of the Assembly, this Protocol has been drawn up by the Secretary General of the Organization.

Subsequently, the Protocol came into force with respect to the following States on the dates of deposit of their instruments of ratification with the International Civil Aviation Organization, in accordance with paragraph 3 (g).
