* See p. 324 of this volume for the text of the declaration of application to Land Berlin.

In addition, declarations were made by the Governments of Bulgaria, the Federal Republic of Germany, Poland, Romania, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America. See p. 324 of this volume for the text of the declarations.
(a) Collect, study and circulate documentation concerning the scientific and technical problems of the preservation and restoration of cultural property;

(b) Co-ordinate, stimulate or institute research in this domain, by means, in particular, of commissions to bodies or experts, international meetings, publications and exchanges of specialists;

(c) Give advice and make recommendations on general or specific points connected with the preservation and restoration of cultural property;

(d) Assist in training research workers and technicians and in raising the standard of restoration work.

Article 2. Membership

The membership of the Centre shall consist of those Member States of Unesco which send a formal declaration of accession to the Director-General of the Organization.

Article 3. Associate Members

The following shall be eligible for Associate Membership of the Centre:

(a) Public institutions of States which are not members of Unesco;

(b) Private, scientific or cultural institutions.

Admission to Associate Membership shall be by decision of the Council of the Centre, taken by a two-thirds majority, on the recommendation of the Executive Board of Unesco.

Article 4. Organs

The Centre shall comprise:

- A General Assembly,
- A Council,
- A Secretariat.

Article 5. The General Assembly

The General Assembly shall consist of the delegates of the States belonging to the Centre, each of which shall be represented by one delegate.

These delegates should be selected from amongst the best qualified technical experts concerned with the preservation of cultural property and should, preferably, be senior members of the government departments responsible for the protection of cultural property in the Member State concerned.

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and Associate Members may be represented at sessions of the General Assembly by observers, who shall be entitled to submit proposals, but not to vote.

The General Assembly shall meet in ordinary session every two years. It may also be convened in extraordinary session by the Council. Unless the General Assembly or the Council decides otherwise, the General Assembly shall meet in Rome.

The General Assembly shall elect its President at the beginning of each regular session. It shall adopt its own rules of procedure.
Article 6. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY: FUNCTIONS

The functions of the General Assembly shall be to:

(a) Decide on the policy of the Centre;
(b) Elect the members of the Council;
(c) Appoint the Director, on the proposal of the Council;
(d) Study and approve the reports and the activities of the Council;
(e) Supervise the financial operations of the Centre, examine and approve its budget;
(f) Fix the contributions of members, on the basis of the scale of contributions for the Member States of Unesco;
(g) Fix the contributions of Associate Members, on the basis of the resources of each individual member.

Article 7. THE COUNCIL

Subject to the provisions of article 12, paragraph 3, the Council shall consist of nine members, of which 5 shall be elected by the General Assembly; the four remaining members shall be:

- A representative of the Director-General of Unesco;
- A representative of the Italian Government;
- The Director of the Laboratoire Central des Musées, Belgium;
- The Director of the Istituto Centrale del Restauro, Rome.

A representative of the International Council of Museums, a representative of the International Committee on Monuments, and a representative of any other international institution named by the Council shall attend the meetings of the Council in an advisory capacity. Except that they shall not be entitled to vote, they shall take part in the work and discussions of the Council on the same footing as the members proper.

The members elected by the General Assembly shall be chosen from amongst the best qualified experts concerned with the preservation of cultural property and kindred scientific subjects.

The members elected by the General Assembly must all be of different nationalities. They shall be elected for a term of two years, and shall be immediately eligible for re-election.

The Council shall meet at least once a year.

The Council shall adopt its own rules of procedure.

Article 8. THE COUNCIL: FUNCTIONS

The functions of the Council shall be to:

(a) Carry out the decisions and directives of the General Assembly;
(b) Exercise such other functions as may be assigned to it by the Assembly;
(c) Establish the draft budget, on the proposal of the Director, and submit it to the Assembly;
(d) Examine and approve the work plan submitted by the Director.

Article 9. CORRESPONDENTS

The Council may, in accordance with its rules of procedure, appoint corresponding experts, who may be consulted on all questions within their special competence.
Article 10. Secretariat

The Secretariat shall consist of the Director and such staff as the Centre may require.

The Director shall be appointed by the General Assembly, on the proposal of the Council. Appointments to any vacancies occurring in the intervals between sessions of the Assembly shall be made by the Council, subject to confirmation by the General Assembly, which shall also fix the term of office.

Assistants to the Director shall be appointed, on the proposal of the Director, by the Council. Appointments to any vacancies occurring in the intervals between sessions of the Council shall be made by the Director, subject to confirmation by the Council, which shall also fix the term of office.

The Director and his assistants must be specialists in different branches of study; they may not be of the same nationality.

The other members of the Secretariat shall be appointed by the Director.

In the discharge of their duties, the Director and the staff shall not seek or receive instructions from any government or from any authority external to the Centre.

Article 11. Legal Status

The Centre shall enjoy, on the territory of every member thereof, the legal capacity necessary for the attainment of its aims and the exercise of its functions.

The Centre may receive gifts or legacies.

For the first two years, the annual contributions of members shall be 1% of their contribution to Unesco for the year 1957.

For each of the first four years, Unesco's contribution shall be not less than $12,000.

Until the first meeting of the General Assembly, which shall take place, at latest, within eighteen months of the entry into force of the present Statutes, the functions vested in the General Assembly and the Council shall be exercised by an Interim Council composed of:

- A representative of the Director-General of Unesco,
- A representative of the Italian Government,
- The Director of the Laboratoire Central des Musées, Belgium,
- The Director of the Istituto Centrale del Restauro, Rome,
- And a fifth member appointed by the Director-General of Unesco.

The Interim Council shall convene the first General Assembly.

Article 13. Revision

Amendments to the present Statutes shall be adopted by the General Assembly; by unanimous vote of the members present and voting.

Proposals for amendments shall be communicated to all members and to Unesco six months prior to the session of the General Assembly on whose agenda they are to be placed. Proposed amendments to such amendments shall be communicated three months prior to the session of the General Assembly.
Article 14. Withdrawal of Member States

Any member may give notice of withdrawal from the Centre at any time after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of its accession. Such notice shall take effect one year after the date on which it was communicated to the Director-General of Unesco, provided that the member concerned has, on that date, paid its contributions for all the years during which it belonged to the Centre, including the financial year following the date of the notice of withdrawal. The Director-General of Unesco shall communicate the said notice to all the members of the Centre, and to the Director.

Article 15. Entry into Force

These Statutes shall enter into force when five States have become members of the Centre.
AMENDMENTS TO THE STATUTES OF THE INTERNATIONAL CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF THE PRESERVATION AND RESTORATION OF CULTURAL PROPERTY

STATUTES OF THE INTERNATIONAL CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF THE PRESERVATION AND RESTORATION OF CULTURAL PROPERTY*

(d) Assist in training research workers and technicians and raising the standard of restoration work.

Article 2. Membership

The membership of the Centre shall consist of those Member States of Unesco which send a formal declaration of accession to the Director-General of the Organization.

Article 3. Associate Members

The following shall be eligible for Associate Membership of the Centre:

(a) Public or private institutions of a scientific or cultural nature of States which are not members of Unesco.

Admission to Associate Membership shall be on the recommendation of the Executive Board of Unesco and by decision of the Council of the Centre taken by a two-thirds majority.

(b) Public or private institutions of a scientific or cultural nature of those Member States or Associate Members of Unesco.

Admission to Associate Membership shall be by decision of the Council of the Centre taken by a two-thirds majority.

* These Statutes are based upon the version on which the General Conference of Unesco, at its ninth session, had taken the following decisions:

1. Decides to create an International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property, to be located in Rome, where it will be able to profit from the assistance of the Istituto Centrale del Restauri and other specialized scientific institutes;
2. Adopts the appendix to the present resolution, setting forth the Statutes of the International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property.

1 These amended Statutes were adopted by the General Assembly of the Centre on 24 April 1963.
2 See p. 288 of this volume.
Article 4. Organs

The Centre shall comprise: a General Assembly, a Council, a Secretariat.

Article 5. The General Assembly

The General Assembly shall consist of the delegates of the States belonging to the Centre, each of which shall be represented by one delegate.

These delegates should be chosen from amongst the best qualified technical experts and if possible representing specialized institutions concerned with the preservation and restoration of cultural property.

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization and Associate Members may be represented at sessions of the General Assembly by observers, who shall be entitled to submit proposals, but not to vote.

The General Assembly shall meet in ordinary session every two years. It may also be convened in extraordinary session by the Council. Unless the General Assembly or the Council decides otherwise, the General Assembly shall meet in Rome.

The General Assembly shall elect its President at the beginning of each regular session. It shall adopt its own Rules of Procedure.

Article 6. The General Assembly: Functions

The functions of the General Assembly shall be to:

(a) Decide on the policy of the Centre;

Article 7. The Council

(a) The Council shall consist of members elected by the General Assembly and special members.

(b) The number of members elected by the Assembly shall not be less than six nor more than twelve. There shall be six members as long as the number of Member States of the Centre is less than thirty; seven members if the number of Member States is between thirty and forty. Thereafter this number shall be increased by one person for each group of ten Member States after the first thirty.

(c) Special members shall be: a representative of the Director-General of Unesco; a representative of the Italian Government; the Director of the Institut Royal du Patrimoine Artistique, Brussels; the Director of the Istituto Centrale del Restauro, Rome; a representative of the International Council of Museums and a representative of the International Council of Monuments and Sites.

(d) The Director of the Centre, representatives of other institutions and experts appointed by the Council may attend the meetings of the Council in an advisory capacity. Except that they shall not be entitled to vote, they shall participate in the work and discussions of the Council on the same footing as the members proper.
The members elected by the General Assembly shall be chosen from amongst the best qualified experts concerned with the preservation and restoration of cultural property taking into consideration equitable representation of the major cultural regions of the world. They must all be of different nationalities.

The members elected by the General Assembly shall be elected for a term of two years, and shall be eligible for re-election.

The Council shall meet at least every two years.

The Council may entrust any definite task or tasks to a Special Committee of which it will decide the composition.

The Council shall adopt its own Rules of Procedure.

Article 8. The Council: Functions

The functions of the Council shall be to:

(a) Carry out the decisions and directives of the General Assembly;
(b) Exercise such other functions as may be assigned to it by the Assembly;
(c) Establish the draft budget, on the proposal of the Director, and submit it to the Assembly;
(d) Examine and approve the work plan submitted by the Director;
(e) Establish the contributions of the Associate Members.

Article 9. Correspondents

Article 10. Secretariat

The Secretariat shall consist of the Director and such staff as the Centre may require.

The Director shall be appointed by the General Assembly, on the proposal of the Council. The appointment to a vacancy occurring in the intervals between sessions of the Assembly shall be made by the Council, subject to confirmation by the General Assembly, which shall also fix the term of office.

Assistants to the Director shall be appointed, on the proposal of the Director, by the Council. Appointments to any vacancies occurring in the intervals between sessions of the Council shall be made by the Director, subject to confirmation by the Council, which shall also fix the term of office.

The Director and his assistants must be specialists in different branches of study; they may not be of same nationality.

The other members of the Secretariat shall be appointed by the Director.

In the discharge of their duties, the Director and the staff shall not seek or receive instructions from any government or from any authority external to the Centre.

Article 11. Legal Status

The Centre shall enjoy, on the territory of every member thereof, the legal capacity necessary for the attainment of its aims and the exercise of its functions.

The Centre may receive gifts or legacies.
Article 12. TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

For the first two years, the annual contribution of members shall be 1% of their contribution to Unesco for the year 1957.*

For each of the first four years, Unesco’s contribution shall not be less than $12,000.

Until the first meeting of the General Assembly, which shall take place, at latest, within 18 months of the entry into force of the present Statutes, the functions vested in the General Assembly and the Council shall be exercised by an Interim Council composed of:

- A representative of the Director-General of Unesco;
- A representative of the Italian Government;
- The Director of the Laboratoire Central des Musées, Belgium;
- The Director of the Istituto Centrale del Restauro, Rome;
- And a fifth member appointed by the Director-General of Unesco.

The Interim Council shall convene the first General Assembly.

Article 13. SANCTIONS

The Members and Associate Members who have not paid their contribution for two or four consecutive years, shall be liable respectively to a penalty of suspension or exclusion.

Article 14. REVISION

Amendments to the present Statutes shall be adopted by the General Assembly by unanimous vote of the members present and voting.

Proposals for amendments shall be communicated to all members and to Unesco six months prior to the session of the General Assembly on whose agenda they are to be placed. Proposed amendments to such amendments shall be communicated three months prior to the session of the General Assembly.

Article 15. WITHDRAWAL OF MEMBER STATES

Any member may give notice of withdrawal from the Centre at any time after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of its accession. Such notice shall take effect one year after the date on which it is communicated to the Director General of Unesco, provided that the member concerned has, on that date, paid its contributions for all the years during which it belonged to the Centre, including the financial year following the date of the notice of withdrawal. The Director-General of Unesco shall communicate the said notice to all the members of the Centre and to the Director.

Article 16. ENTRY INTO FORCE

These Statutes shall enter into force when five States have become members of the Centre.

* In 1963 the majority of the Member States of the Centre voted to have their annual contribution based upon 1% of their contributions paid to Unesco during the current year.

... the Commission of the USSR for Unesco cannot admit the legality of the decision taken by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany concerning the extension to West Berlin of the applicability of its accession to the International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property, since West Berlin is an independent political entity that is not and never was part of the Federal Republic of Germany.

The Government of the Socialist Republic of Romania considers inadmissible the communication from the Permanent Delegate of the Federal Republic of Germany to UNESCO (in which he informs the Director-General of Unesco that the statutes of the International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property will apply also to Land Berlin as from the date of their entry into force for the Federal Republic of Germany), since West Berlin is not part of the territory of the Federal Republic of Germany.

Government of the Federal Republic of Germany that its accession applies also to West Berlin. Since West Berlin has never been part of the Federal Republic of Germany, this statement is unfounded.

The Government of the Polish People's Republic fully endorses the National Commission's communication and does not recognize the legal validity of the aforesaid statement by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany.

[TRANSLATION — TRADUCTION]

... the National Commission for UNESCO of the People's Republic of Bulgaria was very surprised to learn of the claim by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany that accession by the Federal Republic of Germany to the International Centre for the Study of the Preservation and Restoration of Cultural Property also entails accession by the western part of the capital of the German Democratic Republic, for West Berlin is an autonomous political entity that never was and is not part of the Federal Republic of Germany. Consequently, the National Commission cannot recognize the legal validity of the decision by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany.

Gouvernement de la République fédérale d'Allemagne selon laquelle son adhésion vaut également pour Berlin-Ouest. Berlin-Ouest n'ayant jamais fait partie de la République fédérale d'Allemagne, cette déclaration est sans fondement.

Le Gouvernement de la République populaire de Pologne approuve entièrement la communication de la Commission nationale, ne reconnaissant pas la légitimité de la déclaration susmentionnée du Gouvernement de la République fédérale d'Allemagne.

4 mars 1966

Bulgarie

«... la Commission nationale de la République populaire de Bulgarie pour l'Unesco fut très étonnée en apprenant la prétention du Gouvernement de la République fédérale d'Allemagne, selon laquelle l'adhésion de la République fédérale d'Allemagne au Centre international d'études pour la conservation et la restauration des biens culturels aura signifié l'adhésion également de la partie ouest de la capitale de la République démocratique d'Allemagne, étant entendu que Berlin-Ouest est entité politique autonome qui ne fut jamais et ne fait pas partie de la République fédérale d'Allemagne. Ergo, elle ne peut pas reconnaître la légitimité de la décision du Gouvernement de la République fédérale d'Allemagne.»

FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY

[Traduction — Translation]

Berlin is part of Germany. The relations of Berlin with authorities abroad are, however, currently reserved to the Allied Kommandatura as the supreme authority in Berlin. Nevertheless, in paragraph III (c) of the Declaration on Berlin of 5 May 1955, which accords with instruments that previously entered into force, such as the Declaration referred to in the Allied Kommandatura's letter of 21 May 1952, the Allied Kommandatura has authorized the Berlin authorities to assure the representation abroad of the interests of Berlin and its inhabitants under suitable arrangements. Such arrangements have been concluded with the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany, which is the only freely and legitimately constituted German Government.

The arrangements made in accordance with the foregoing permit the Federal Republic of Germany to extend to Berlin the international agreements which the Federal Republic of Germany concludes, provided that certain conditions are observed. Under these conditions, the final decision in every case on the extension of the international agreement to Berlin is left to the Allied Kommandatura.

«Berlin fait partie de l'Allemagne. Les rapports de Berlin avec les autorités étrangères sont cependant actuellement réservés à la Kommandatura interalliée, en tant qu'autorité suprême à Berlin. Toutefois, dans le paragraphe III (c) de la Déclaration sur Berlin publiée le 5 mai 1955 qui concorde avec les textes entrés en vigueur dès avant cette date, telle que la Déclaration à laquelle se réfère sa lettre du 21 mai 1952, la Kommandatura interalliée a autorisé les autorités berlines à faire assurer la représentation à l'étranger des intérêts de Berlin et de ses habitants par des arrangements appropriés. De tels arrangements ont été conclus avec le Gouvernement de la République fédérale d'Allemagne, qui est le seul Gouvernement allemand librement et légitimement constitué.

«Les arrangements qui ont été effectués en accord avec les dispositions qui précèdent permettent à la République fédérale d'Allemagne d'étendre à Berlin le champ d'application des accords internationaux conclus par elle, pourvu que certaines conditions soient respectées. D'après ces conditions, la décision finale sur l'extension du champ d'application de l'accord international est laissée dans chaque cas à tura. In addition, internal Berlin action is required to make any such international agreement applicable as domestic law in Berlin.

It is clear that this procedure, which accords with the special status of the city, safeguards entirely the rights and responsibilities of the Allied Kommandatura and, through it, those of the Allied Powers, who remain in any event competent to decide on the extension to Berlin of the international agreements concluded by the Federal Republic of Germany.

It follows that the objections raised by the National Commission of the USSR, the National Commission of the Byelorussian SSR, the Permanent Delegation of the Socialist Republic of Romania, the Embassy of the Polish People's Republic, and the National Commission of the People's Republic of Bulgaria are unfounded.

The assertions in that letter that the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany is "the only legally-constituted German Government" are unfounded and unwarrantable. It is known to everyone that there are two German States in Europe, the German Democratic Republic and the Federal Republic of Germany. The German Democratic Republic is a fully sovereign and democratic State. The USSR Commission cannot refrain from deploring the fact that the authorities of the Federal Republic of Germany should use Unesco as a channel for expressing their unlawful expansionist assertions and claims.

Il s’ensuit que les objections soulevées ... ne sont pas fondées.
