CZECHOSLOVAKIA

“The Government of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic as a party to the International Convention on the elimination of all forms of racial discrimination, opened for signature in New York on 7 March 1966,² does not recognize any legal effects of the instrument of ratification of the Convention deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations on 28 November 1983 by the so-called government of ‘Democratic Kampuchea’.

“The Czechoslovak Socialist Republic recognizes the Government of the People’s Republic of Kampuchea as the sole representative of the Kampuchean people which alone is entitled to represent and defend the interests of the People’s Republic of Kampuchea in bilateral or multilateral international relations and to act as a party to international treaties and agreements.

“For the above-stated reasons, the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic does not recognize any right of the government of the so-called ‘Democratic Kampuchea’ to act and to assume international obligations in the name of the Kampuchean people.”

Registered ex officio on 12 March 1984.
