2. The remedies provided for in this Convention are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any remedies available under municipal or international law.

¹ Came into force on 25 May 1957, the thirtieth day following the date of deposit with the Secretary-General of the United Nations of the third instrument of ratification or accession, in accordance with article 14. The following States have deposited their instruments of ratification or accession (a) on the dates indicated:

- Morocco .......................................... 18 March 1957 (a)
- Israel* ........................................... 4 April 1957

"Article 10: Israel reserves the right:

"(a) to take the necessary measures to prevent transfers of funds under this Article for purposes other than the bona fide payment of existing maintenance obligations;

"(b) to limit the amounts transferable pursuant to this Article, to amounts necessary for subsistence."
Article 2

1. Each Contracting Party shall, at the time when the instrument of ratification or accession is deposited, designate one or more judicial or administrative authorities which shall act in its territory as Transmitting Agencies.

2. Each Contracting Party shall, at the time when the instrument of ratification or accession is deposited, designate a public or private body which shall act in its territory as Receiving Agency.

3. Each Contracting Party shall promptly communicate to the Secretary-General of the United Nations the designations made under paragraphs 1 and 2 and any changes made in respect thereof.

4. Transmitting and Receiving Agencies may communicate directly with Transmitting and Receiving Agencies of other Contracting Parties.

Article 3

APPLICATION TO TRANSMITTING AGENCY

1. Where a claimant is in the territory of one Contracting Party, hereinafter referred to as the State of the claimant, and the respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of another Contracting Party, hereinafter referred to as the State of the respondent, the claimant may make application to a Transmitting Agency in the State of the claimant for the recovery of maintenance from the respondent.

2. Each Contracting Party shall inform the Secretary-General as to the evidence normally required under the law of the State of the Receiving Agency for the proof of maintenance claims, of the manner in which such evidence should be submitted, and of other requirements to be complied with under such law.
