[TRANSLATION — TRADUCTION]

The Democratic and Popular Republic of Algeria does not consider itself bound by article IX of the above-mentioned Convention, which confers on the International Court of Justice jurisdiction in all disputes relating to the said Convention.

The Democratic and Popular Republic of Algeria declares that no provision of article VI of the said Convention shall be interpreted as depriving its tribunals of jurisdiction in cases of genocide or other acts enumerated in article III which have been committed in its territory or as conferring such jurisdiction on foreign tribunals.

International tribunals may, as an exceptional measure, be recognized as having jurisdiction in cases in which the Algerian Government has given its express approval.

The Democratic and Popular Republic of Algeria declares that it does not accept the terms of article XII of the above-mentioned Convention and considers that all the provisions of the said Convention should apply to Non-Self-Governing Territories, including Trust Territories.
