Arrangements pour la réglementation de la chasse pélagique à la baleine dans l’Antarctique. Signés à Londres, le 6 juin 1962

Texte officiel anglais.

No. 7080. ARRANGEMENTS\(^1\) BETWEEN JAPAN, THE NETHERLANDS, NORWAY, THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS AND THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND FOR THE REGULATION OF ANTARCTIC PELAGIC WHALING. SIGNED AT LONDON, ON 6 JUNE 1962

The Governments of Japan, the Kingdom of the Netherlands, the Kingdom of Norway, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, being Parties to the International Convention for the Regulation of Whaling, signed at Washington on December 2, 1946\(^2\) (hereinafter referred to as “the Convention”);

Have agreed upon the following Arrangements:

Article 1

For the purposes of the present Arrangements the term “season” shall mean the season during which the taking of baleen whales is permitted under paragraph 7 (a) of the Schedule to the Convention.

Article 2

The present Arrangements shall be operative until the end of the 1965-66 season.

Article 3

The total annual catch authorised under the Convention shall be divided among the countries of the Contracting Governments in the following quotas:

---

\(^1\) Came into force on 13 April 1963, the date of which all the signatory Governments had notified their acceptance to the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, in accordance with article 7. The notifications of acceptance were received as follows:

Norway ........................................ 25 October 1962
Japan ........................................... 5 November 1962
United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland 27 November 1962
Netherlands .................................... 22 February 1963
United of Soviet Socialist Republics .......................... 13 April 1963

These quotas are not transferable except as provided in Article 5 hereof and in Articles 3 and 4 of the Supplementary Arrangements signed at London on this day's date.¹

Article 4

None of the Contracting Governments shall permit any increase in the number of factory ships under its jurisdiction operating in the Antarctic except by purchase from the country of another Contracting Government of factory ships engaged at the time of purchase in Antarctic pelagic whaling, save that the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics may permit one additional factory ship to be added to the fleet operating during the 1960-61 whaling season.

Article 5

(1) None of the factory ships under the jurisdiction of any of the Contracting Governments shall be transferred to the jurisdiction of another Government which is a party to the Convention, unless a part of the quota of the transferor Government is allocated to the transferee Government and the latter agrees to accept the obligations of the present Arrangements, or unless the transferee country gives a satisfactory guarantee that the factory ship will not be used as such in Antarctic pelagic whaling during the period of the present Arrangements.

(2) The part of the quota of the transferor country to be allocated shall be settled between the two Governments concerned, provided that no such allocation shall result in any country with only one factory ship having a quota exceeding 6% of the total annual catch authorised under the Convention. The part of the quota allocated shall be notified by the two Governments concerned to the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, which shall notify the other signatory Governments.

Article 6

If a factory ship under the jurisdiction of a Government which is not a party to the present Arrangements should engage in Antarctic pelagic whaling otherwise than as a result of a transfer as provided under Article 5 above, and that

Government is or becomes a Party to the Convention, the present Arrangements shall be terminated.

Article 7

The present Arrangements shall enter into force on the date on which all the signatory Governments shall have notified their acceptance to the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

In witness whereof the undersigned, being duly authorised thereto by their respective Governments, have signed the present Arrangements.

Done at London the 6th day of June, 1962 in the English language in a single copy which shall be deposited in the archives of the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The Government of the United Kingdom shall transmit certified copies thereof to all other signatory Governments.
