No. 7525. CONVENTION¹ ON CONSENT TO MARRIAGE,
MINIMUM AGE FOR MARRIAGE AND REGISTRATION
OF MARRIAGES. OPENED FOR SIGNATURE AT NEW YORK, ON 10 DECEMBER 1962

Preamble

The Contracting States,

Desiring, in conformity with the Charter of the United Nations, to promote universal respect for, and observance of, human rights and fundamental freedoms for all, without distinction as to race, sex, language or religion,

Recalling that article 16 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights² states that :

“ (1) Men and women of full age, without any limitation due to race, nationality or religion, have the right to marry and to found a family. They are entitled to equal rights as to marriage, during marriage and at its dissolution.

“ (2) Marriage shall be entered into only with the free and full consent of the intending spouses. ”,

Recalling further that the General Assembly of the United Nations declared, by resolution 843 (IX) of 17 December 1954,³ that certain customs, ancient laws and practices relating to marriage and the family were inconsistent with the principles set forth in the Charter of the United Nations and in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

Reaffirming that all States, including those which have or assume responsibility for the administration of Non-Self-Governing and Trust Territories until their achievement of independence, should take all appropriate measures with a view to abolishing such customs, ancient laws and practices by ensuring, inter alia, complete freedom in the choice of a spouse, eliminating completely child marriages and the betrothal of young girls before the age of puberty,

¹ The draft of the above-mentioned Convention was approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations in resolution 1763 A (XVII) of 7 November 1962. In the same resolution, the General Assembly decided to open the Convention for signature on 10 December 1962. For the text of that resolution, see Official Records of the General Assembly, Seventeenth Session, Supplement No. 17 (A/5217), p. 28. The Convention, in accordance with its article 6 (1), came into force on 9 December 1964, that is to say, on the ninetieth day following the date of deposit of the eighth instrument of ratification or accession. For the list of States having deposited their instruments of ratification or accession, see p. 278 of this volume.

² United Nations, Official Records of the General Assembly, Third Session, Part I, Resolutions (A/810), p. 71.

³ United Nations, Official Records of the General Assembly, Ninth Session, Supplement No. 21 (A/2890), p. 23.

Article 7

(1) Any Contracting State may denounce the present Convention by written notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations. Denunciation shall take effect one year after the date of receipt of the notification by the Secretary-General.

(2) The present Convention shall cease to be in force as from the date when the denunciation which reduces the number of parties to less than eight becomes effective.

Article 8

Any dispute which may arise between any two or more Contracting States concerning the interpretation or application of the present Convention which is not settled by negotiation shall, at the request of all the parties to the dispute, be referred to the International Court of Justice for decision, unless the parties agree to another mode of settlement.

(2) The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall transmit a certified copy of the Convention to all States Members of the United Nations and to the non-member States contemplated in article 4, paragraph 1.

IN FAITH WHEREOF the undersigned, being duly authorized, have signed, on behalf of their respective Governments, the present Convention which was opened for signature at the Headquarters of the United Nations, New York, on the tenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-two.
