AGREEMENT¹ ESTABLISHING THE PEPPER COMMUNITY

PREAMBLE

The Contracting Parties to this Agreement,

Convinced that the present situation of and future outlook for pepper (piper nigrum) necessitates their joining together and developing a well-planned programme of concerted action to solve their common problems and to enable them to obtain the benefits of co-operation in the areas of production, research and marketing,

Recognizing that the formation of an organization among the producing countries having a substantial interest in the production and marketing of pepper is a necessary and effective instrument for implementation of the basic strategy of plan harmonization and co-operation on a commodity basis for achieving accelerated development of their economies,

Believing that such a grouping is in accordance with the principle endorsed by the United Nations Economic Commission for Asia and the Far East at its twenty-third and twenty-fourth sessions held in 1967 and 1968, by the United Nations Economic and Social Council at its forty-third and forty-fifth sessions, by the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development in General Principle Ten of the Final Act of its first session in 1964, and by the declaration of the United Nations General Assembly at its 1883rd plenary meeting on International Development Strategy for the Second Development Decade,²

Realizing that the co-ordination of national efforts among the producing countries that could be effected by such an organization would lead to better utilization of resources and yield quicker results, and

Recognizing that such an organization would be of immense value in the mobilization of resources to improve the pepper economy and promote its rapid development,

Have resolved to combine their efforts and have agreed as follows :

¹ Came into force on 29 March 1972, i.e. when the following three States had deposited their instrument of ratification with the Secretary-General, as indicated below, in accordance with article 12 :

State	Date of the deposit of the instrument
Indonesia	1 November 1971
Malaysia	22 March 1972
India	29 March 1972

² See resolutions 2626 and 2627 in United Nations, Official Records of the General Assembly, Twenty-fifth Session, Supplement No. 28 (A/8028), pp. 3 and 39.

Article 1

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COMMUNITY

There shall be established an organization to be known as "The Pepper Community" (hereinafter called the Community) having the membership, functions and powers hereinafter prescribed.

Article 2

MEMBERSHIP

1. Initially the Community shall consist of the Contracting Parties only, namely, India, Indonesia, Malaysia.
2. Other pepper producing countries may apply to become members of the Community and may become members on the unanimous decision of the then existing members of the Community and by accession to this Agreement.

Article 3

OBJECTIVES AND FUNCTIONS

The functions of the Community shall be to promote, co-ordinate and harmonize all activities relating to the pepper economy with a view to achieving the following broad objectives :

- (1) To co-ordinate and stimulate research on technical and economic aspects of production, including research on diseases affecting the pepper plant, research on development of disease-resistant and high-yielding varieties;
- (2) To facilitate the exchange of information on programmes and policies, and on any other aspects relating to production;
- (3) To develop programmes for increasing consumption in traditional and new markets, including programmes of co-operation in promotion activities;
- (4) To intensify and co-ordinate research on new uses of pepper;
- (5) To further joint action for the relaxation of tariff and non-tariff barriers and for the removal of other obstacles to trade;
- (6) To co-ordinate standards of quality so as to facilitate international marketing;
- (7) To keep under constant review developments relating to supply, demand and prices of pepper;

- (8) To carry out investigations into the causes and consequences of fluctuations in the price of pepper and suggest appropriate solutions;
- (9) To improve statistical and other information on pepper production, consumption, trade and prices, including techniques of production and consumption forecasting; and
- (10) To undertake such other activities and functions as may be deemed desirable in the interests of the world pepper economy.

Article 4

RELATIONSHIP WITH UNITED NATIONS ORGANIZATIONS

The Community shall maintain close relations with United Nations bodies and the specialized agencies. In carrying out its functions in any particular field the Community may consult, co-operate with and seek assistance from the United Nations bodies or specialized agencies having particular responsibility in that field.

Article 5
