The American Ambassador to the Philippine Secretary of Foreign Affairs

Manila, November 22, 1971

No. 721

Excellency:

I have the honor to refer to the April 16, 1971 Agricultural Commodity Sales Agreement,¹ and propose the following amendment to this Agreement:

To Part II, Item I, Commodity Table, is added 145,000 metric tons of corn with a maximum export market value of United States dollars 7,100,000 and the total maximum export market value is increased from United States dollars 20,289,000 to United States dollars 27,389,000. Line 4 of paragraph B in Item IV, Export Limitations, is changed to read "and cotton textiles; for corn — corn, cornmeal, barley, grain sorghum, rye, oats, and mixed feed containing predominantly such grains." All other terms and conditions of the April 16, 1971 Agreement remain the same.

If the foregoing is acceptable to your government, I propose that this note and your reply thereto constitute an agreement between our two governments, effective on the date of your note in reply.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
