4. If the Agreement comes into force more than eight months before the beginning of the first full financial year of the Organization, the Council shall at its first session approve an administrative budget covering the period up to the commencement of the first full financial year. Otherwise, the first administrative budget shall cover both the initial period and the first full financial year.

Bearing in mind the relevant objectives of the Final Act of the first session of UNCTAD, each Member shall take such action as it deems appropriate to encourage the consumption of sugar and to remove any obstacles which restrict the growth of sugar consumption. In so doing, each Member shall have regard to the effects on sugar consumption of customs duties, internal taxes and fiscal charges and quantitative or other controls, and to all other important factors relevant to an assessment of the situation.

2. Each Member shall periodically inform the Council of the measures it has adopted under paragraph 1 of this article, and of their effects.

3. The Council shall establish a Sugar Consumption Committee composed of both exporting and importing Members.

4. The Committee shall study such matters as:

- (a) the effects on sugar consumption of the use of any form of substitutes for sugar, including other sweeteners;

1. Any dispute concerning the interpretation or application of the Agreement which is not settled among the Members involved shall, at the request of any Member party to the dispute, be referred to the Council for decision.

2. In any case where a dispute has been referred to the Council under paragraph 1 of this article, a majority of Members holding not less than one third of the total votes may require the Council, after discussion to seek the opinion of an advisory panel constituted under paragraph 3 of this article on the issue in dispute before giving its decision.

3. (a) Unless the Council unanimously agrees otherwise, the panel shall consist of five persons as follows:

- (i) two persons, one having wide experience in matters of the kind in dispute and the other having legal standing and experience, nominated by the exporting Members;

(c) Persons appointed to the advisory panel shall act in their personal capacities and without instructions from any Government.

(d) The expenses of the advisory panel shall be paid by the Organization.

4. The opinion of the advisory panel and the reasons therefor shall be submitted to the Council, and the Council, after considering all the relevant information, shall decide the dispute by special vote.

Article 30. ACTION BY THE COUNCIL ON COMPLAINTS AND ON NON-FULFILMENT OF OBLIGATIONS BY MEMBERS

1. Any complaint that any Member has failed to fulfil its obligations under the Agreement shall, at the request of the Member making the complaint, be referred to the Council which, subject to prior consultation with the Members concerned, shall make a decision on the matter.

2. Any finding by the Council that a Member is in breach of its obligations under the Agreement shall be made by a distributed simple majority vote and shall specify the nature of the breach.

3. Whenever the Council, whether as the result of a complaint or otherwise, finds that a Member has committed a breach of the Agreement it may, without prejudice to such other measures as are specifically provided for in other articles of the Agreement, by special vote:

- (a) suspend that Member's voting rights in the Council and in the Executive Committee; and, if it deems it necessary,
- (b) suspend further rights of such Member, including that of being eligible for, or of holding office in the Council or in any of its Committees until it has fulfilled its obligations; or, if such breach significantly impairs the operation of the Agreement,
- (c) take action under article 40.

CHAPTER IX. PREPARATIONS FOR A NEW AGREEMENT

Article 31. PREPARATIONS FOR A NEW AGREEMENT

1. The Council shall initiate an early study of the bases and framework of a new international sugar agreement and shall make a report to the Members not later than 31 December 1974. The report shall contain such recommendations as the Council deems appropriate.

2. On the basis of the report referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, or of any subsequent report based on a similar study by the Council, the Council shall, as soon as it considers appropriate, request the Secretary-General of UNCTAD to convene a negotiating conference.

CHAPTER X. FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 32. SIGNATURE

The Agreement shall be open for signature at United Nations Headquarters until and including 24 December 1973 by any Government invited to the United Nations Sugar Conference, 1973.

Article 33. RATIFICATION

The Agreement shall be subject to ratification, acceptance or approval by the signatory Governments in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures. Except as provided in article 34, instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations not later than 31 December 1973.

Article 34. NOTIFICATION BY GOVERNMENTS

1. If a signatory Government is unable to comply with the requirements of article 33 within the time-limit specified in that article, it may notify the Secretary-General of the United Nations, not later than 31 December 1973, that it is undertaking to seek ratification, acceptance or approval in accordance with the constitutional procedures required, as rapidly as possible and in any case not later than 15 October 1974. Any Government for which conditions of accession have been established by the Council in agreement with that Government may also notify the Secretary-General of the United Nations that it is undertaking to satisfy the constitutional procedures required to accede to the Agreement as rapidly as possible and at least within a six-month period of such conditions being established.

2. Any Government which has given a notification in accordance with paragraph 1 of this article may, if the Council is satisfied that it cannot deposit its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession within the time-limit referred to in that paragraph which is relevant to that Government, be permitted to deposit such instrument by a later specified date, provided that in the case of a signatory Government such date shall not be later than 15 April 1975.

3. Any Government which has given a notification in accordance with paragraph 1 shall have the status of an Observer until either:

- (a) it deposits an instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession;
- (b) the time-limit for its deposit of such an instrument has elapsed; or
- (c) it indicates that it will apply the Agreement provisionally, whichever occurs earliest.

Article 35. INDICATION TO APPLY THE AGREEMENT PROVISIONALLY

1. Any Government which gives a notification pursuant to article 34 may also indicate in its notification, or at any time thereafter, that it will apply the Agreement provisionally.

2. During any period the Agreement is in force, either provisionally or definitively, a Government indicating that it will apply the Agreement provisionally shall be a provisional Member of the Organization until it deposits its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, and thus becomes a Contracting Party to the Agreement, or the time limit for the deposit of its instrument in accordance with article 34 has elapsed, whichever is earlier.

Article 36. ENTRY INTO FORCE

1. The Agreement shall enter definitively into force on 1 January 1974, or on any date within the following six months, if by that date Governments, representing at least 50 per cent of the total net exports set out in annex A, and Governments, representing at least 40 per cent of the total net imports set out in annex B, have deposited their instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval with the Secretary-General of the United Nations. It shall also enter definitively into force at any time thereafter if it is provisionally in force and these percentage requirements are satisfied by the deposit of instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession.

2. The Agreement shall enter provisionally into force on 1 January 1974, or on any date within the following six months, if by that date Governments satisfying the percentage requirements of paragraph 1 of this article have deposited their instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval, or have indicated that they will apply the Agreement provisionally.

3. On 1 January 1974, or on any date within the following twelve months and at the end of each subsequent six-month period during which the Agreement is provisionally in force, the Governments of any of those countries which have deposited instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession may decide to put the Agreement definitively into force among themselves in whole or in part. These Governments may also decide that the Agreement shall enter provisionally into force, or continue provisionally in force, or lapse.

Article 37. ACCESSION

Any Government invited to the United Nations Sugar Conference, 1973, and any other Government that is a Member of the United Nations, or any of its Specialized Agencies or of the International Atomic Energy Agency may accede to the Agreement upon conditions that shall be established by the Council in agreement with the Government seeking accession. Accession shall be effected by the deposit of an instrument of accession with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article 38. TERRITORIAL APPLICATION

1. Any Government may, at the time of signature or deposit of an instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession or at any time thereafter, by notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, declare that the Agreement

- (a) shall also extend to any of the developing territories for whose international relations it is for the time being ultimately responsible and which has notified the Government concerned that it wishes to participate in the Agreement; or
- (b) shall extend only to any of the developing territories for whose international relations it is for the time being ultimately responsible and which has notified the Government concerned that it wishes to participate in the Agreement, and the Agreement shall extend to the territories named therein from the date of such notification if the Agreement has already entered into force for that Government or, if the notification has been made prior thereto, on the date on which the Agreement enters into force for that Government. Any Government which has made a notification under paragraph 1 (b) may subsequently withdraw that notification and may make a notification or notifications to the Secretary-General of the United Nations under paragraph 1 (a).

2. When a territory to which the Agreement has been extended under paragraph 1 of this article subsequently assumes responsibility for its international relations the Government of that territory may, within ninety days after the assumption of responsibility for its international relations, declare by notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations that it has assumed the rights and obligations of a Contracting Party to the Agreement. It shall, as from the date of such notification, become a Party to the Agreement.

3. Any Contracting Party which desires to exercise its rights under article 4 in respect of any of the territories for whose international relations it is for the time being ultimately responsible may do so by making a notification to that effect to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, either at the time of the deposit of its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, or at any later time.

4. Any Contracting Party which has made a notification under paragraph 1 (a) or 1 (b) of this article may at any time thereafter, by notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, declare in accordance with the wishes of the territory that the Agreement shall cease to extend to the territory named in the notification, and the Agreement shall cease to extend to such territory from the date of such notification.

5. A Contracting Party which has made a notification under paragraph 1 (a) or 1 (b) of this article shall remain ultimately responsible for the performance of obligations under the Agreement by territories which in accordance with the provisions of this article and of article 4 are separate Members of the Organization, unless and until such territories make a notification under paragraph 2 of this article.

Article 39. WITHDRAWAL

1. Any Member may withdraw from the Agreement at any time after the first year it is in force by giving written notice of withdrawal to the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

2. Withdrawal under this article shall be effective ninety days after the receipt of the notice by the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article 40. EXCLUSION

If the Council finds that any member is in breach of its obligations under the Agreement and decides further that such failure significantly impairs the operation of the Agreement, it may, by special vote, exclude such Member from the Organization. The Council shall immediately notify the Secretary-General of the United Nations of any such decision. Ninety days after the date of the Council's decision, that Member shall cease to be a Member of the Organization and, if such Member is a Contracting Party, a Party to the Agreement.

Article 41. SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS WITH WITHDRAWING OR EXCLUDED MEMBERS

1. The Council shall determine any settlement of accounts with a withdrawing or excluded Member. The Organization shall retain any amounts already paid by a withdrawing or excluded Member, and such Member shall remain bound to pay any amounts due from it to the Organization at the time the withdrawal or exclusion becomes effective; provided, however, that in the case of a Contracting Party which is unable to accept an amendment and consequently ceases to participate in the Agreement under the provisions of paragraph 2 of article 43, the Council may determine any settlement of accounts which it finds equitable.

2. A Member which has withdrawn or been excluded from, or has otherwise ceased to participate in, the Agreement shall not be entitled to any share of the proceeds of liquidation or the other assets of the Organization; nor shall it be burdened with any part of the deficit, if any, of the Organization upon termination of the Agreement.

Article 42. DURATION AND EXTENSION

1. The present Agreement shall remain in force until and including 31 December 1975.

2. However, if a new international sugar agreement is negotiated as envisaged by article 31 and enters into force before that date, the present Agreement shall terminate upon entry into force of the new agreement.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 of this article, the Council may, after 31 December 1974, extend the present Agreement until and including 31 December 1976 by special vote. The Council may subsequently further extend the Agreement on a year to year basis. Notwithstanding the provisions of article 11, extensions by the Council under this article will be dealt with by each member in accordance with its constitutional procedures.

4. If a new international sugar agreement is negotiated as envisaged by article 31 and enters into force during any period of extension, the present Agreement, as extended, shall terminate upon the entry into force of the new agreement.

Article 43. AMENDMENT

1. The Council may, by special vote, recommend an amendment of the Agreement to the Contracting Parties. The Council may fix a time after which each Contracting Party shall notify the Secretary-General of the United Nations of its acceptance of the amendment. The amendment shall become effective one hundred days after the Secretary-General of the United Nations has received notifications of acceptance from Contracting Parties holding at least 850 of the total votes of exporting Members and representing at least three-quarters of those Members and from Contracting Parties holding at least 800 of the total votes of importing Members and representing at least three-quarters of those Members or on such later date as the Council by special vote may have determined. The Council may fix a time within which each Contracting Party shall notify the Secretary-General of the United Nations of its acceptance of the amendment and, if the amendment has not become effective by such time, it shall be considered withdrawn. The Council shall provide the Secretary-General with the information necessary to determine whether the notifications of acceptance received are sufficient to make the amendment effective.

2. Any Member on behalf of which notification of acceptance of an amendment has not been made by the date on which such amendment becomes effective shall as of that date cease to participate in the Organization. If, however, notification is made to the Secretary-General of the United Nations on behalf of such Member before the effective date of the amendment that its acceptance cannot be secured in time because of difficulties in completing the required constitutional procedures, but that the Member undertakes to apply the amendment provisionally, that

Member shall continue to participate in the Organization. Until the Secretary-General of the United Nations has been notified that such Member accepts the amendment, it shall be provisionally bound by that amendment.

Article 44. NOTIFICATION BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL OF THE UNITED NATIONS

The Secretary-General of the United Nations shall notify all States Members of the United Nations, of any of its Specialized Agencies or of the International Atomic Energy Agency of each signature, of each deposit of an instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, of each notification under article 34, and of each indication under article 35, and of the dates on which the Agreement comes provisionally or definitively into force. The Secretary-General shall notify all Contracting Parties of each notification under article 38, of each notice of withdrawal under article 39, of each exclusion under article 40, of the date on which an amendment becomes effective or is considered withdrawn under paragraph 1 of article 43, and of any cessation of participation in the Organization under paragraph 2 of article 43.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned, having been duly authorized to this effect by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement on the dates appearing opposite their signatures.

The texts of this Agreement in the Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish languages shall all be equally authentic. The originals shall be deposited in the archives of the United Nations, and the Secretary-General shall transmit certified copies thereof to each signatory or acceding Government.

CUBA

[SPANISH TEXT — TEXTE ESPAGNOL]

Diciembre 26 de 1973

“La República de Cuba considera que las disposiciones del artículo 38 del Convenio Internacional del Azúcar 1973, ya no son aplicables por ser contrarias a la Declaración sobre la concesión de la Independencia a los países y pueblos coloniales (Resolución 1514) hecha por la Asamblea General de las Naciones Unidas el 14 de diciembre de 1960 en la que se proclama la necesidad de poner fin rápida e incondicionalmente al colonialismo en todas sus formas y manifestaciones.

La ratificación de la República de Cuba al Convenio Internacional del Azúcar, 1973 no se podrá interpretar como el reconocimiento o aceptación a la República de Corea, incluida en el Anexo B del referido Convenio.”

26 décembre 1973

The Republic of Cuba considers that the provisions of article 38 of the International Sugar Agreement, 1973, are no longer applicable because they are contrary to the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples adopted by the United Nations General Assembly on 14 December 1960 (resolution 1514 (XV)),¹ which proclaims the necessity of bringing to a speedy and unconditional end colonialism in all its forms and manifestations.

Ratification of the International Sugar Agreement, 1973, by the Republic of Cuba cannot be interpreted as recognition or acceptance of the Republic of Korea, which is referred to in annex B of the Agreement.

La République de Cuba considère que les dispositions de l'article 38 de l'Accord international de 1973 sur le sucre sont inapplicables car elles sont contraires à la Déclaration sur l'octroi de l'indépendance aux pays et aux peuples coloniaux [résolution 1514 (XV)], que l'Assemblée générale de l'Organisation des Nations Unies a adoptée le 14 décembre 1960¹ et dans laquelle elle a proclamé la nécessité de mettre rapidement et inconditionnellement fin au colonialisme sous toutes ses formes et dans toutes ses manifestations.

La ratification par la République de Cuba de l'Accord international de 1973 sur le sucre ne pourra être interprétée comme impliquant la reconnaissance ou l'acceptation de la République de Corée, qui est mentionnée à l'annexe B dudit Accord.
