Sixtieth session
Agenda item 83

Scope of legal protection under the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel

Report of the Sixth Committee

Rapporteur: Ms. Shermain Jeremy (Antigua and Barbuda)

I. Introduction

1. The item entitled “Scope of legal protection under the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel” was included in the provisional agenda of the sixtieth session of the General Assembly pursuant to Assembly resolution 59/47 of 2 December 2004.
2. At its 17th plenary meeting, on 20 September 2005, the General Assembly, on the recommendation of the General Committee, decided to include the item in its agenda and to allocate it to the Sixth Committee.
3. The Sixth Committee considered the item at its 8th, 9th and 22nd meetings, on 19 and 20 October and 16 November 2005. The statements made during the Committee’s consideration of the item are reflected in the relevant summary records (A/C.6/60/SR.8, 9 and 22).
4. For its consideration of the item, the Committee had before it the following documents:
 - (a) Report of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Scope of Legal Protection under the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel;¹
 - (b) Report of the Working Group of the Sixth Committee on the Scope of Legal Protection under the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel (A/C.6/60/L.4).
5. At its 1st meeting, on 3 October, the Sixth Committee established a Working Group to continue the work of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Scope of Legal Protection under the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel, established pursuant to General Assembly resolution 56/89 of 12 December 2001, and elected Christian Wenaweser (Liechtenstein), as Chairman of the Working Group.

6. At the 8th meeting of the Sixth Committee, on 19 October, the Chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee and of the Working Group introduced the report of the Ad Hoc Committee and the report of the Working Group. It was announced that informal consultations on the text of a draft optional protocol would continue among interested delegations during the session, with a view to finalizing discussions on the outstanding issues. At the same meeting, pursuant to General Assembly resolution 59/47, the Legal Counsel presented an oral report on measures taken to implement that resolution.

II. Consideration of draft resolution A/C.6/60/L.11

7. At the 22nd meeting, on 16 November, the Chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee and of the Working Group, on behalf of the Bureau, introduced a draft resolution entitled "Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel" (A/C.6/60/L.11), to which was annexed the text of the Optional Protocol.

8. At the same meeting, the Chairman made a statement drawing attention to linguistic changes to be made to the text of the draft resolution (see A/C.6/60/SR.22).

9. Also at its 22nd meeting, the Committee adopted draft resolution A/C.6/60/L.11 without a vote (see para. 12).

10. Before the adoption of the draft resolution, the representatives of the Syrian Arab Republic, Venezuela (Bolivarian Republic of), the Sudan, Colombia and Iran (Islamic Republic of) made statements in explanation of position (see A/C.6/60/SR.22).

11. After the adoption of the draft resolution, the representatives of Cuba, Costa Rica, Guatemala, New Zealand and Jordan made statements in explanation of position (see A/C.6/60/SR.22).

III. Recommendation of the Sixth Committee

12. The Sixth Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 59/47 of 2 December 2004 on the scope of legal protection under the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel,

Recalling also its resolution 49/59 of 9 December 1994, by which it adopted the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel (“the Convention”),

Noting that the Convention, which entered into force on 15 January 1999, has been ratified or acceded to by seventy-nine States as at the date of the present resolution,

Reaffirming, in the context of the Convention and its Optional Protocol, the importance of maintaining the integrity of international humanitarian law,

Reaffirming also the obligation of all humanitarian personnel and United Nations and associated personnel to respect the national laws of the country in which they are operating, in accordance with international law and the Charter of the United Nations,

Deeply concerned by the increasing dangers and security risks faced by United Nations and associated personnel at the field level, and mindful of the need to provide the fullest possible protection for their security,

Having considered the report of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Scope of Legal Protection under the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel,¹ established pursuant to resolution 56/89 of 12 December 2001, and the report of the Working Group of the Sixth Committee,²

Recalling paragraph 167 of the 2005 World Summit Outcome,³ which stressed the need to conclude negotiations on a protocol expanding the scope of legal protection of United Nations and associated personnel during the sixtieth session of the General Assembly,

Underlining the need to promote the universality of the Convention and thereby strengthen the safety and security of United Nations and associated personnel,

Encouraging States to enact national legislation, as necessary, in order to enable the implementation of the Convention and the Protocol,

² A/C.6/60/L.4.

³ See resolution 60/1.

1. Adopts, therefore, the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel, which is contained in the annex to the present resolution, and requests the Secretary-General as depositary to open it for signature;

2. Invites States to become parties to the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel.

Annex

Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel

The States Parties to this Protocol,

Recalling the terms of the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel, done at New York on 9 December 1994,

Deeply concerned over the continuing pattern of attacks against United Nations and associated personnel,

Recognizing that United Nations operations conducted for the purposes of delivering humanitarian, political or development assistance in peacebuilding and of delivering emergency humanitarian assistance which entail particular risks for United Nations and associated personnel require the extension of the scope of legal protection under the Convention to such personnel,

Convinced of the need to have in place an effective regime to ensure that the perpetrators of attacks against United Nations and associated personnel engaged in United Nations operations are brought to justice,

Have agreed as follows:

Article I Relationship

This Protocol supplements the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel, done at New York on 9 December 1994 (hereinafter referred to as “the Convention”), and as between the Parties to this Protocol, the Convention and the Protocol shall be read and interpreted together as a single instrument.

Article II Application of the Convention to United Nations operations

1. The Parties to this Protocol shall, in addition to those operations as defined in article 1 (c) of the Convention, apply the Convention in respect of all other United Nations operations established by a competent organ of the United Nations in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and conducted under United Nations authority and control for the purposes of:

(a) Delivering humanitarian, political or development assistance in peacebuilding, or

(b) Delivering emergency humanitarian assistance.

2. Paragraph 1 does not apply to any permanent United Nations office, such as headquarters of the Organization or its specialized agencies established under an agreement with the United Nations.

3. A host State may make a declaration to the Secretary-General of the United Nations that it shall not apply the provisions of this Protocol with respect to an operation under article II (1) (b) which is conducted for the sole purpose of responding to a natural disaster. Such a declaration shall be made prior to the deployment of the operation.

Article III

Duty of a State Party with respect to article 8 of the Convention

The duty of a State Party to this Protocol with respect to the application of article 8 of the Convention to United Nations operations defined in article II of this Protocol shall be without prejudice to its right to take action in the exercise of its national jurisdiction over any United Nations or associated personnel who violates the laws and regulations of that State, provided that such action is not in violation of any other international law obligation of the State Party.

Article IV

Signature

This Protocol shall be open for signature by all States at United Nations Headquarters for twelve months, from 16 January 2006 to 16 January 2007.

Article V

Consent to be bound

1. This Protocol shall be subject to ratification, acceptance or approval by the signatory States. Instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

2. This Protocol shall, after 16 January 2007, be open for accession by any non-signatory State. Instruments of accession shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

3. Any State that is not a State Party to the Convention may ratify, accept, approve or accede to this Protocol if at the same time it ratifies, accepts, approves or accedes to the Convention in accordance with articles 25 and 26 thereof.

Article VI

Entry into force

1. This Protocol shall enter into force thirty days after twenty-two instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession have been deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

2. For each State ratifying, accepting, approving or acceding to this Protocol after the deposit of the twenty-second instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, the Protocol shall enter into force on the thirtieth day after the deposit by such State of its instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession.

Article VII
Denunciation

1. A State Party may denounce this Protocol by written notification to the Secretary-General of the United Nations.
2. Denunciation shall take effect one year following the date on which notification is received by the Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Article VIII
Authentic texts

The original of this Protocol, of which the Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish texts are equally authentic, shall be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations, who shall send certified copies thereof to all States.
