The Legal Counsel presents his compliments to the Permanent Representatives to the United Nations in New York and has the honour to refer to the Secretary-General's invitation to Member States to participate in the Treaty Event, Focus 2003: Treaties Against Transnational Organized Crime and Terrorism, held at United Nations Headquarters from 23 to 26 September 2003.

56 States participated in the above event and undertook 155 treaty actions relating to 41 treaties (60 signatures and 95 ratifications, acceptances, accessions and other treaty actions).

During the event, the following treaties relating to transnational organized crime and terrorism attracted the largest number of actions:

- United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, 2000 (10 ratifications/accessions). The Convention, entered into force on 29 September 2003, currently has 147 signatories and 51 parties.
- Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, 2000 (8 ratifications/accessions). The Protocol, which will enter into force on 25 December 2003 as a result of the treaty event, currently has 117 signatories and 40 parties.
- Protocol against the Smuggling of Migrants by Land, Sea and Air, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, 2000 (5 ratifications/accessions). The Protocol currently has 112 signatories and 37 parties. It will enter into force on the ninetieth day after the date of deposit of the fortieth instrument of ratification, acceptance, approval or accession. For this purpose, any instrument deposited by a regional economic integration organization shall not be counted as additional to those deposited by member States of such organization.
- Protocol against the Illicit Manufacturing of and Trafficking in Firearms, Their Parts and Components and Ammunition, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime, 2001 (5 ratifications/accessions). The Protocol currently has 52 signatories and 11 parties. It will enter into force in the same manner as the Protocol above.
- Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of Crimes against Internationally Protected Persons, including Diplomatic Agents, 1973 (7 accessions). The Convention, which entered into force on 20 February 1977, currently has 25 signatories and 140 parties.
