Secretary-General's bulletin*Procedures to be followed by the departments, offices and regional commissions of the United Nations with regard to treaties and international agreements

The Secretary-General, for the purpose of establishing procedures to be followed by the departments, offices and regional commissions of the United Nations with regard to treaties and international agreements, promulgates the following:

Part I
Treaties and international agreements concluded by the United Nations*Section 1
Drafts of treaties and international agreements

Drafts of treaties and international agreements to be concluded by the United Nations shall be submitted by the relevant department, office or regional commission to the Office of Legal Affairs for review and comment prior to finalization.

Section 2
Registration or filing and recording

All treaties and international agreements concluded by the United Nations shall be forwarded by the relevant department, office or regional commission to the Treaty Section of the Office of Legal Affairs (Treaty Section), upon their entry into force, for registration pursuant to Article 102 of the Charter of the United Nations, or filing and recording. Such instruments shall remain in the custody of the Treaty Section unless special arrangements have been approved in advance by the Treaty Section.

Part II
Instruments relating to treaty actions by the United Nations*Section 3
Instruments requiring consultations

Where the United Nations intends to undertake a treaty action for which purpose full powers, an act of formal confirmation or an instrument of acceptance, approval or accession are required, the relevant department, office or regional commission shall consult with the Office of Legal Affairs in advance of such action.

Part III
Treaties and international agreements to be deposited with the Secretary-General*Section 4
Drafts of treaties and international agreements

4.1 All draft treaties and international agreements intended to be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations shall be submitted by the relevant department, office or regional commission to the Office of Legal Affairs for review and comment prior to finalization.

4.2 Draft final clauses of such treaties and international agreements shall be submitted by the relevant department, office or regional commission to the Treaty Section for review and comment prior to finalization.

4.3 Every endeavour shall be made to ensure that the texts of treaties and international agreements to be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations are concluded only in the official languages of the United Nations.

Section 5 Adopted texts of treaties and international agreements

5.1 Following the formal adoption of the texts of treaties and international agreements to be deposited with the Secretary-General of the United Nations, the adopted texts shall be submitted by the relevant department, office or regional commission, in both paper and electronic formats, to the Treaty Section, in all the authentic languages, for purposes of preparing the originals of such agreements, and for performing the requisite depositary functions. In general, a period of four weeks should be allowed between the dates of adoption and the dates on which the treaties or international agreements are opened for signature to enable the preparation of the originals of the treaties or international agreements and the distribution of the certified true copies.

5.2 Following the formal adoption of such texts, no further changes shall be made to the texts by any department, office or regional commission, except in consultation with the Treaty Section.

Section 6 Designation of the Secretary-General as depositary of treaties and international agreements

6.1 When it is intended that the Secretary-General discharge the depositary functions relating to treaties and international agreements, such treaties or international agreements shall confer the depositary functions on the Secretary-General only and not on any other official of the United Nations. The Secretary-General shall not be designated as a co-depositary.

6.2 When it is intended that the Secretary-General be designated the depositary, the relevant department, office or regional commission shall consult the Treaty Section in advance.

6.3 All treaties and international agreements deposited with the Secretary-General and open for signature shall remain in the custody of the Treaty Section. Any exceptions to this rule shall be arranged in advance with the Treaty Section.

Section 7 Full powers

All instruments of full powers received by any department, office or regional commission authorizing representatives to sign treaties and international agreements deposited with the Secretary-General shall be forwarded to the Treaty Section for verification prior to signature of such treaties and international agreements. Any exceptions to this rule shall be arranged in advance with the Treaty Section.

Section 8 Ceremony of signature

When it is arranged for States to sign a treaty or international agreement deposited with the Secretary-General on the same occasion, the Office of Legal Affairs shall be informed in advance by the relevant department, office or regional commission. Arrangements for the ceremony at which the signatures are to be affixed, including provision for the discharge of the depositary functions, shall be made in consultation with the Treaty Section.

Section 9 Instruments and notifications to be deposited with the Secretary-General

Instruments of ratification, acceptance, approval, accession, succession or any similar instruments and notifications relating to treaties and international agreements deposited with the Secretary-General which are received by any department, office or regional commission shall be forwarded to the Treaty Section.

Part IV Final provisions

Section 10 Final provisions

10.1 The present bulletin shall enter into force on 1 October 2001.

10.2 Administrative instruction AI/52 of 25 June 1948 is hereby abolished.
