The Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States and non-member States to the United Nations and has the honour to inform the Permanent Missions that the Treaty Section of the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs will organize its next Seminars on Treaty Law and Practice on The Work of the Treaty Section of the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs. These training seminars will be conducted at United Nations Headquarters respectively in English on Thursday, 4 December 2025 and in French on Friday, 5 December 2025.

The seminars will cover the depositary practice of the Secretary-General for multilateral treaties and the registration and publication of treaties in accordance with Article 102 of the Charter of the United Nations (see attached programme).

In addition, a session on the United Nations Convention against Cybercrime will be offered in the afternoon segment of each seminar by a representative of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

Members of the Permanent Missions who are interested in participating in one of the seminars should register in advance by sending an email indicating their name, title, nationality, contact information as well as whether they wish to attend the seminar in English or French to treatysection@un.org, by 28 November 2025.

The Office of Legal Affairs of the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Missions of Member States and non-member States to the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.
